June edition addendum (July)

Joyeuse fête de l'Indépendance
(Happy Fourth of July)

The Indie Film Series at Celebration Cinema in Lansing includes two French films in July. They are: Une Vie (A Woman's Life) and Moka. Both films open July 7. Be sure to check the Indie Film schedule at <https://celebrationcinema.com/indie> for show times.

Calling all débutants! (who want to improve their French-speaking skills). Anne will lead a conversation group for beginners. It will begin tomorrow, on July 19th at American Fifth Spirits on Larch St. (just north of Michigan Ave.) at 6:30. If you cannot attend on the 19th but would like to attend, please send Anne a note and let her know that you will attend future conversations. Anne's contact info: tonsonanne@gmail.com, 413-362-9335 (to send a text message).

The July soirée will be at Linda Potter's house on the 15th. The evening will be a garden party, i.e., no special program, simply games and music and friendship. It will be the day after "la fête de l'Indépendance" in France July 14th - or 'Bastille Day', le quatorze juillet.

French conversation groups will continue to meet throughout the summer.

"Happy Hour Conversations" will meet on alternate Wednesdays (July 12th, July 26th, etc.) The next conversation will be at Leroy's Bar on S. Cedar St.

The "Conversation Café will continue to meet every Thursday at 3:00 PM at Schuler's Café in the Meridian Mall.
